

Dominique Leutwyler
Swiss (born 1970)
Head Finance and Services

After his commercial apprenticeship at the children's hospital Basel, Dominique Leutwyler completed a further education in accounting. He could extend his experience in management by becoming a Captain in the Swiss Army. In 1995 he joined Scancars, the Swiss sales partner of Saab, as CFO. After the consolidation with Saab and later the takeover by General Motors he was operating as CFO for Saab Automobile Switzerland. In 2001 Dominique Leutwyler joined Medartis as CFO. He is member of the Board of Management, responsible for the finance, human resources, IT and logistics department inside the headquarters and in the international subsidiaries.