

Klaus Breuer
German (born 1957)
Head International Sales

After achieving his commercial university degree, Klaus Breuer completed a further education as wholesaler in a MedTec company. After several years as Sales & Customer Service Manager with Fischer Medical Technique, he moved to Leibinger in 1985. During 17 years he held various managerial positions in product management, sales and international product management in osteosynthesis (Maxillofacial surgery, ENT, neuro, hand, orthopaedics, trauma). In the year 2002 Klaus Breuer joined Medartis as Head of International Sales, responsible for marketing, the development of the markets in different countries and for the subsidiaries.