PRESS RELEASE

Medartis appoints Mareike Loch as Vice President EMEA and Member of the Executive Board

Basel, Switzerland, 10 June 2020 – Medartis Holding AG (SIX: MED), a leading manufacturer and provider of medical devices for surgical fixation of bone fractures, is expanding its Executive Management Board with the appointment of Mareike Loch as Vice President EMEA. Medartis is therefore strengthening the market proximity and regional focus of its sales organization in line with its growth strategy.

The Board of Directors of Medartis Holding AG has appointed Mareike Loch as Vice President EMEA and Member of the Executive Management Board, effective 17 August 2020. This appointment is in line with the growth strategy announced by the company, which will be supported by a sharpened sales focus with representation of the market regions on the Executive Management Board, accelerated development of key markets and an increase in the speed of innovation. Mareike Loch has in-depth knowledge of the global medical device industry, particularly in the orthopedic sector, and more than twenty years of management and sales experience in Europe, the US and the Asia-Pacific region. At Medartis, she will assume responsibility for the subsidiaries and distribution in the EMEA market region.

Over the past 23 years, Mareike Loch has had a successful international career at Zimmer Biomet. In 2015, she assumed her most recent position as Vice President EMEA for the Trauma, Extremities, Foot&Ankle, Sportsmedicine and Biologics business units. In this role, she also managed the consolidation of the Zimmer and Biomet portfolios following their merger in 2015. Prior to this, Mareike Loch was Vice President EMEA at Zimmer, responsible for various business units, including Commercial Director Germany, Switzerland, Austria, starting in 2013. From 2008, she spent five years in Singapore as Vice President APAC Marketing & Business Intelligence. From 2005 to 2008, she was Senior Director Global Brand Management and responsible for the market presence in the hip and knee segment in the EMEA region. Prior to this, she worked for Zimmer Japan in Tokyo for two years. She began her career in 1997 at Sulzer Medica, which was acquired by Zimmer in 2003. Mareike Loch is a German citizen and holds master's degrees in product design and mechanical engineering from the University of Glasgow.

Christoph Brönnimann, Chief Executive Officer of Medartis: "We are very pleased that following the recent appointment of Lisa Thompson as President North America, Mareike Loch, another proven expert in the field of osteosynthesis, will be joining our Executive Management Board. Mareike is an experienced leader with a strong track record in building and expanding new and developed markets in different cultures. We are convinced that under Mareike's leadership, we can further strengthen the market proximity of our sales organizations in EMEA, and that she will make an important contribution to our growth".
